El Camino's Debate Team In Tourney

Members of the El Camino College forensics team head for Bakersfield College this week end for a two-day debate tournament.

Rated as one of the best debate events of the forensics year, the competition will be stiff and a real challenge to the Warrior squad. Colleges and universities from all sectors of the state will be present and should provide trouble for the top-flight Warriors.

Speech Coach John Dobbin will leave for Bakersfield tomorrow morning with four debate teams. The tournament will consist of six rounds of debate, plus the quarter and semi-finals, and finals. The national debate question which is "Resolved that the further development of nuclear weapons should be prohibited by an international agreement" should be adequately discussed at this tournament.

Representing El Camino will be Burt Dumais, Wes Nathanson, Walter Becker, John Grey, Jack Lane, Neil Jardine, Miss Beverly Smith, and Miss Gail Smith.

The Bakersfield event will be the final tournament before the qualified teams prepare for the National Tournament to be held at the University of Washington in April.
